AFFAIRS IN THE MORMON EMPIRE.

A letter in the Chicago Times from Salt Lake City says:

"We have a new feature here in sign-boards—by Divine command, so it is said. Each "saint" who keeps a store must have a sign by which the "faithful" will know where to trade; and they are forbidden, under penalty of being cut off from the Church, (and consequently never seeing Paradise,) from dealing with any others.—The signs are: "Holiness to the Lord," in an arch, with the "All seeing Eye" in the centre; "Zion's Mercantile Institution." I am sorry to say that some of the "outsiders," or "Gentiles," very irreverently call them "bull's-eye shops;" and I am still more sorry to state that even some Mormons, not having the fear of Brigham before their eyes, will quietly slip into a "Gentile" shop to make some purchases, particularly if they know they can save at least thirty per cent., when they are in no way bound to pay that extra for the sake of "building up Zion." There are mines of gold, silver, copper, and lead within forty miles of this place, that, were they located five hundred miles away, in some almost inaccessible wilderness, would have a rush for them from all parts of the world. I have spent several days in some of the mining districts, and am surprised that there is not more done in them, with the facilities they have. "Bingham canon," about 20 miles to the northwest of the city, will see a camp of about five hundred men in the spring. There are rich "placer" diggings of very fine gold, from the finest dust up to nuggets one ounce each, besides ledges of gold and silver quartz, very rich, and copper and lead ores which will yield over fifty per cent in weight of either. I understand that a company which means business has been organizing lately in Chicago, and has secured several ledges, and will proceed to develop and work them. I will only say that there cannot help being a large fortune in store for them; for, if mines can be worked successfully anywhere, it must be there. The splendid deposits of galena and silver ore, also, of "Cottonwood canon," are bound to be mints of wealth to those who are not afraid to risk a dollar. Wood is in abundance; there is water power of the best kind every mile of the length of the canon; labor is plenty, and every facility exists for work on any kind of a scale. It may be asked, why have these silver mines been so long neglected? The "laws"—that is the Mormon Church—prohibit mining among its members, and they are bound to discourage it in every possible way, and outsiders have not dared to take hold of it; but, thanks to civilization and railroads and the press, that time is gone by entirely."

WENDELL PHILLIPS ON GENERAL GRANT.

Wendell Phillips made a speech at the recent celebration of the Emancipation anniversary, at Boston, in which he thus spoke of General Grant:

"Referring to Grant, he said that he might civilize the South and become the great constable of peace, which many believed he would; but he himself would not be disappointed in him, "whatever his course might be," for he had never promised anything. He could not tell until the 4th of March what could be expected from the election of the great military chief, and his election he also regarded as too numerically close to jump at a too early conclusion of the will of the people. In brief, he would rather look forward than backward, for the great duty is now to put a guarantee upon negro suffrage, and that depends upon Gen. Grant and the support by the people of all the radical elements of the Republican party. He would not put too much confidence in Grant until he opens himself on the 4th of March, and if he is worthy of being upheld, then he should be, most heartily; but if he is not worthy, of support he should be dealt with accordingly."

CHINESE TESTIMONY RULED OUT IN SAN FRANCISCO.—Several days since, a soldier named Cunningham was arrested for stabbing a Chinaman. He was brought before Judge Provines for examination, and the wounded Chinaman was offered as a witness against him. To this the prisoner's counsel objected; and the Court expressing a wish to hear argument on the matter, the case was continued. Yesterday afternoon the question of the competency of such testimony was argued at length by Louderback for the prosecution, and Zack Montgomery for the defence. The former contended that under the fourteenth amendment to the Federal Constitution, and civil rights bill, all persons, regardless of race or color, and not otherwise disqualified, are competent witnesses, and entitled to the same rights and privileges in Courts of justice. The case was finally taken under advisement, and this morning Judge Provines rendered his decision excluding the Chinese witnesses. He held that the constitutional amendment refers only to citizens, and was not intended to interfere with or abrogate any of the rules of evidence established by the laws of the States. Chinamen are not citizens, and consequently the law of the State excluding their evidence in cases where white men are parties must be considered in full force.—San Francisco Bulletin, December 18.

A remarkable account was given in a late English paper of the escape of a convict from prison. The cell in which he was confined, had an iron door, with a lock entirely on the outside. The only implements the prisoner had were a wooden spoon, some bits of wire, and a needle and thread. Out of the spoon he made a key, by means of the needle he passed a thread over and under the door; bits of wire were pushed through the inspection hole and fastened to this long thread, extending outside from top to bottom. The key was also pushed through, and being fastened to the thread was brought opposite the key-hole by a dexterous manipulation of the slender line, worked gently in, then turned by means of the wire, and the door was opened. This is certainly one of the greatest exhibitions of skill and patience on record.

A Rhode Island horse fancier, who thought he knew a thing or two, recently swapped a white horse for a cream-colored one, paying something "to boot." More recently he traded off his cream-color for a beautiful, glossy, coal-black horse, paying "boot" again. Very soon, however, the coal black horse grew rusty, and, in spite of all his efforts, has turned into the identical white horse which he traded off!

EDUCATIONAL.

Kittrell's Springs Female College.
GRANVILLE CO., N. C.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will be resumed the second Wednesday in February.

The Annual Commencement will occur the last Wednesday in June.

REV. T. M. JONES, the former popular and accomplished President of Greensboro and Louisburg Female Colleges, has accepted the Presidency of this school, and will enter upon his duties in February. His long and successful experience, his eminent scholarship, and his devotion to the educational interests of the South, forbid any word of commendation.

REV. C. B. RIDDICK, formerly President, is still identified with the operations of the Institution, and retires from the care of the Literary Department, only to devote himself more exclusively to its other interests.

LOCATION not to be surpassed. The celebrated MINERAL WATER an inhaling fountain of health. EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES complete. An extensive APPARATUS and LIBRARY. MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS new and of the best style.

Terms moderate as at any other school of similar grade.

Persons wishing to send their daughters will remember that we are on the great line of railroad leading North and South, within less than half-mile of Kittrell's Depot, Raleigh and Gaston Railroad.

For other particulars, apply to
REV. T. M. JONES, PRESIDENT.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
141 Broadway, N. Y.
ASSETS OVER
$1,000,000!

CHRISTIAN W. BOUK.....President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS.....Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE.....Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER.....Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL.D., Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st. TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30-$14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue.

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

DIGEST OF NEWS.

Gold closed in New York, last evening, at 1.36½.

Cotton was quoted at 27@27½.

North Carolina Bonds: Old 68[, New 62]

Neff, Radical, is elected Mayor of Wilmington with the full regular Radical ticket for Aldermen. The "regulars" are made up of negroes and carpet-baggers.

Maj. C. Dowd, for Mayor, and the entire Citizen's ticket, for Aldermen, defeat the Radical ticket in Charlotte handsomely. Ahrens, Hyden's appointee, was the Radical candidate for Mayor.

In Goldsboro', the Radicals elect only two out of the five Commissioners.

The Special Court of New Hanover commenced on Monday,—"Judge" Cantwell presiding. His charge to the Grand Jury was something less than a mile long.

The Wilmington Journal, after quoting the official announcement made by Gov. Holden, some time back, that the interest on the State debt would certainly be paid on the 1st of January and thereafter, asks:

"In whose interest, we would like to ask his Excellency, was this official falsehood made public? Certainly not for the benefit of his poor, impoverished, tax-ridden State, whose welfare he had sworn to promote. Is he, too, speculating on the necessities of North Carolina? We know full well that those who are around him, and who are most in his confidence and esteem, are growing rich at the expense of the State. Is the Governor really in the 'Ring?'"

The Board of Trade of Norfolk have appointed a Committee to petition the Legislature of North Carolina to select that port as a Depot for European immigrants.

The New York Times estimates that there are about half a million of office-seekers in various parts of the country, about to make a dead set on General Grant as soon as he enters upon his duties.

The action of the Conference of "leading men of Virginia," recently held at Richmond, is variously received by the Press of that State. The Richmond Dispatch and Whig, Petersburg Index and Norfolk Journal approve its action, while the Richmond Enquirer, Petersburg Express and Norfolk Virginian denounce it unsparingly. The Enquirer says:

"For ourselves, we most earnestly protest against such action being received as inspired by the sentiment of Virginia. There is not in the broad limits of this glorious old Commonwealth enough white men to form a constituency for a single Congressman who, under any circumstances, will ever acknowledge the equality of the negro race, no matter under what coercion, and no matter how pressing the importunities of "expediency."

The Grand Jury of the District of Columbia has been taking the testimony of witnesses in order to procure evidence on which to base a new indictment against Jno. H. Surratt. This renewed attempt meets with disfavor among nearly all classes in the District, although there are of course a few who approve, but they are confined to the extreme Radicals who are always anxious for some excitement or other. It might be supposed that after two failures they would be willing to let the subject drop. The former trials cost the Government $150,000.

The extensive Water-Power at Columbia, S. C., known as the Canal, was purchased by Senator Spragues, of Rhode Island, for $200,000, instead of "$200," as stated by telegraph.

Galveston, Texas, it is reported, has 25,000 inhabitants. It has 600 business firms and six lines of steamships, five of sailing ships, two banks, six private bankers, two Insurance Companies, and three cotton-press Companies.

It is reported that Ashley, the Impeacher, will introduce into the House two resolutions of censure; one on Reverdy Johnson for shaking hands with Laird; the other on Ben. Butler for shaking hands with President Johnson on New Year's Day.

A correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal writes from Lexington, Va., that Gen. Lee declined an offer from a New York Insurance Company of $10,000 a year to act as its General Agent in the South, "through no want of respect for the Company, which is understood to be eminently respectable, but because Gen. Lee feels that his place is here; that his mission is the education of the youth of the South, and that the splendid prizes of worldly wealth should not allure him from his sphere of duty."

Bro Pepper, who loses no opportunity of casting a fling at the better men and better days of North Carolina, expresses great horror at the manner in which our jails are built. He attributes their architecture, &c., to the cruel spirit of "slavery," &c. In the "loil" city of Philadelphia, the jails are no better than they are in the "disloyal" State of North Carolina, if we may judge from what Hester Vaughn writes to Mrs. Stanton. She says, among other things:

"You have no idea how dreadful it is to be shut up all alone there long dark nights with mice and cockroaches. I have had my fingers bitten while sleeping."

Sergeant Bates has settled in New Orleans.

CONSOLIDATION OF RAILROADS.

As there is a bill pending before the Legislature for the consolidation of the Atlantic and N. C. and North Carolina Railroads, it may aid members to arrive at satisfactory conclusions as to their duty in the matter, to read the opinions of others on that subject.

The last speech which we heard the late lamented Gov. Morehead make, and we believe the last public speech that he ever made, we publish in this issue of our paper.

The State lost one of her greatest and best men in the death of Gov. Morehead.—In his death, internal improvements, education, and every great interest of the State, lost a warm, zealous and working friend.

Consolidation, we know, will militate against the interests of the Raleigh and Gaston Road. It will add much to the value and receipts of that Road to exercise a controlling influence in the running of the North Carolina Road. For that Road to do so, would necessarily cripple that part of the North Carolina Road from Raleigh to Goldsboro.

The Raleigh and Gaston Road has heretofore sought to lease the N. C. Road.—When the sale of the N. C. Road takes place, we should think the Raleigh and Gaston would consult its interest by being among the purchasers.

HON. NATHANIEL BOYDEN.

It will be a matter of profound astonishment, to many persons in North Carolina, to learn that Mr. Boyden has actually served a notice on the Hon. F. E. Shober, that he will dispute his right to a seat in the next Congress, which Shober won by only twelve hundred majority!

We learn that Mr. Boyden bases his claim to the seat upon the ground of illegality in the manner of voting, and especially that it was illegal to require all the names to be upon one ticket. This question Mr. Boyden should settle with Colyman, the Attorney General, and "Governor" Holden, who, to elect Dewesse and other objectionable characters, required all names to be upon one ticket.

"All mankind to some loved ills incline,
Great men choose greater sins—ambition's mine."

So said Richard, but ambition is not Mr. Boyden's. Love of money is.

The story is told, on the North Carolina Railroad, that when the "Boyden," an engine named in honor of the new Radical convert, stalled and was not able to ascend a steep grade, Patt King, the engineer, went to the top of the grade, and showed the "Boyden" a silver quarter, and called aloud for it to come up. The fireman chunked the fire, and up came the "Boyden" to the silver quarter.

Mr. Boyden is fairly and squarely beaten, but there is something in Radicalism that taints wherever it touches. After thirty years of personal and political friendship and association with Gov. Graham, Mr. Boyden made most unjust and unfounded imputations upon his old friend in a speech at Concord. This was the result of Radical contamination. Remembering that, we are not astonished at Mr. Boyden's serving his party by contesting the seat of Mr. Shober.

We do him the justice to say, that we have no doubt but he will live to regret his contest of Mr. Shober's seat, as he now regrets his assaults upon his old friend.

INTEREST ON STATE DEBT.

It will be seen, by reference to the House proceedings on yesterday, that a communication was received from the Public Treasurer, stating that the failure to pay the interest, due on the 1st inst., was caused by his inability to borrow the necessary amount, ($305,000,) without hypothecating the stocks, &c., of the State, as collateral security. If this is so, it is, as Dr. Ellis suggested, a significant commentary upon the effects of Radical reconstruction on the credit of the State.

We are of the opinion, however, that this whole procedure is a movement in the interests of the Ring. The Legislature, under dictation, will give the Treasurer the necessary authority to pledge the stocks of the State; the money to meet the interest will be promptly advanced; the Ring will make money out of any temporary depreciation of the bonds; and the Ring will furthermore seek to get ultimate possession of the State's interests in its works of Internal Improvement. Mark the prediction.

Let the people hold public meetings and denounce this attempt to swindle the State and enrich a parcel of sharpers.

GREELEY, we believe, is honest,—for a Radical. He compliments the Grand Jury of the Federal Court, which presented Dewesse for abusing the franking privilege, and says: "If the example set in that State were followed generally, how many of our Senators and Representatives would escape!—The poor man, who wants to write to his son in the far West, must pay postage on his letters; but any scamp, who can make a fac simile of a Congressman's stamp, can mail a car-load of useless rubbish, every week, without paying a cent."

A REPUBLICAN ESTIMATE OF CARPET-BAG CONGRESSMEN.—Don Piatt, the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, writes as follows of the carpet-bag Congressmen from the South:

"And in all sober earnestness, to write in "a frank and manly way," the net purport and upshot of our reconstruction measures at the South as seen in Congress is not pleasant. No amount of certificates of election and formalities of an oath can make these gentlemen of the hand-baggage real M. C.'s. When one makes his appearance on the floor we cannot look each other in the countenance without audible smiles that are indecorous. If the gentleman would only indulge in a little disguise to help on the delusion something might be gained, but the look, manner, dress, and, above all, the vote, is the vote of the alien.

The antagonism between New England civilization and that of the South, previous to the war, was not more deadly than is the antagonism of interest now between those localities, and yet these gentlemen of the paper color and extra dickey follow New England, and vote all the time against the interests of their own constituents.

I had a long talk with one of these representatives ad interim last night, and tried to convince him that it would be well, just for the appearance of the thing, to cast a vote now and then for the region he claimed to represent. But, no! I found my friend had an intense contempt for one-half of his people, and a deadly hatred for the other half. It was a Connecticut congressman elected in the South.

Having no very high opinion of myself and a contempt for the rest of humanity, I can put up with the grotesque and absurd as well as any one. But there is a point you know, beyond which I find it difficult to keep my countenance, and the New England carpet-bagger carries me there. I wrinkle and haw haw—I can't help it—when the gentleman of the paper dicky, from New England, gravely takes his seat as a representative from the South.

Better cut the South into provinces, and give them military Governors to keep the peace until the negro is educated, the white master subdued, and time, the consoler, heals the wounds of war, than thus to make a caricature of a representative Government and stultify ourselves.

The social horrors which "reconstruction" has brought upon the South are enough to chill the blood of the most hardened wretch who ever contemplated crime. From almost every direction we are constantly hearing of atrocities by negroes and abandoned white ruffians, and we could fill whole columns with the accounts which our exchanges contain. It seems that there is a perfect saturnalia of crime among the new made "citizens," and those sections of the South in which they have the largest "liberty" are the scenes of the most frequent exercise of their licentiousness. How long! oh, how long, shall we endure these things?—Rich. Examiner.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 6, 1869.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Moore, from the Committee on Corporations, reported favorably on the following bills, viz:

Bill to amend the charter of the town of Elizabeth City;

Bill to renew the charter of the Richmond Manufacturing Company;

Bill to incorporate Lebanon Lodge, Columbus county;

Reports from the Commissioners of Hyde, Person, Edgecombe, Northampton, Halifax and Warren counties were referred to the Committee on Townships.

On motion of Mr. Lassiter, the use of the Senate Chamber was granted to the Trustees of the University, from and after 4 o'clock to-day.

On motion of Mr. Lindsay, the Senate Chamber was tendered, from and after 2 o'clock, to-morrow, to the Legal Profession. [Members of the Legislature, and citizens, desiring to attend, are invited to do so.]

Mr. Sweet introduced a resolution, instructing the Public Treasurer to pay, out of funds not otherwise appropriated, railage and other necessary expenses incurred by witnesses summoned before the Committee on Bribery and Corruption.

A Committee arrived from the House, announcing the death of Richard Short, Representative from Pitt, with appropriate resolutions.

Mr. Rich said:

MR. PRESIDENT:—Once again, in a few short months, are we called upon to mourn the death of one of the members of the General Assembly. One more of our members has gone to that shadowy land where all the doubts, perplexities and problems of this world are finally and forever solved.—The fears, the cares, the labors and the responsibilities of this earth for him are over. "After life's fitful fever, he sleeps well."

Mr. Short left Raleigh upon our adjournment, for his home in Pitt county, remaining over night with his mother in Nash.—In the morning, not feeling well, he laid down upon the bed to rest, and scarcely had he done so, when death claimed him for his own. One gasp, and the animating soul was gone. He died in the full strength of early manhood, leaving a young beloved wife and one child. Looking forward to long years of happiness with the woman of his choice, he was suddenly taken from her without an opportunity of even bidding her farewell. Anxiously waiting his coming, imagine the pangs that must have rent that wife's heart, when she beheld him, whose return she had so long looked for, a corpse. Our sympathies must be hers, for her our hearts must bleed.

"She weeps a loss, for ever new,
A void where heart on heart reposed,
And where warm hands have pressed and closed,
Silence, till she be silent too.

"She weeps the comrade of her choice
An awful thought—a life renewed,
The human-hearted man she loved,
A spirit, not a breathing voice."

Mr. Short was eminently an honest man. Firm in his convictions, true to his principles, no amount of calumny or abuse could make him swerve from the path of duty; once having deliberately decided upon what was right, true and just, no sophistry could turn him aside, no flattery could change, no threat appal; there he stood, "firm as the everlasting hills." But this firmness never degenerated into obstinacy; convince his reason and his judgment, and no man would more readily or more frankly acknowledge his error. As a citizen, he was above reproach, as a neighbor, he was kind and generous, as a politician, he was just and honest, and as a friend he was true as steel.

But he is gone, and we shall no longer see his manly form; no longer behold his genial smile; never again clasp his friendly hand. But though we shall no longer greet him, what to us is loss, is to him gain. Let us then

"Weep not for him! The Thracian wisely gave Tears to the birth couch, triumph to the grave."

Mr. Barnes said that he knew the deceased well. He was born and raised in the county of Nash, and moved to Pitt county about two years ago. He has gone without leaving an enemy behind him in Nash, and, no doubt, the same can be said of him in Pitt. He was a gentleman and "an honest man—the noblest work of God."

Mr. Brogden followed in eulogy of the deceased; and the resolutions were adopted.

On motion of Mr. Respass, the Senate agreed to wear the usual badge of mourning.

On motion of Mr. Forkner, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow, 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 6, 1869.

House called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Long, of Chatham, of the House.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

The Clerk called the roll and 62 members answered to their names.

Messrs. Downing, Boddie, Proffit, Gilbert, Long, of Richmond, Blair, Davidson, Bowman, Clayton, of Transylvania, Vestal and Welch presented the reports of their County Commissioners. The reports were appropriately referred.

Mr. Sinclair moved that a Committee of three be appointed, to inform the Senate of the demise of the Hon. Richard Short, and lay before them a copy of the resolutions passed by the House, on yesterday. Carried.

The Chair then appointed Messrs. Sinclair, Downing and Argo as said Committee.

Messrs. Hodgin, Allison, and Smith, of Alleghany, were announced as being detained from their seats, from various causes.

Mr. Estes presented a memorial from the Chamber of Commerce of Wilmington.—Lies over.

Mr. Downing gave notice that he would shortly move a Joint Committee to investigate the whole matter in regard to the purchase of a site for the proposed Penitentiary.

Mr. Welch introduced a resolution for the relief of A. J. Murray, Sheriff of Haywood county.

On motion of Mr. Welch, the rules were suspended and the resolution, after some debate, passed its several readings.

A message was received from the Governor, transmitting the report of the Auditor. The report was ordered to be printed.

Another message was received from the same, transmitting a communication from the Public Treasurer, showing the present condition of the Treasury. [The Governor, in the message, expressed great confidence in the financial skill and ability of the Treasurer and urged upon the House to take immediate action to provide for the payment of the interest on the public debt and to meet the current expenses of the State government.] The communication was read at length. It states in substance that every effort had been made to borrow $305,000, to meet the interest falling due on the 1st of January, but it had been found impossible to do so, without having the power to pledge some collaterals, &c.

Mr. Barnett regarded this as one of the most important communications yet laid before the House; therefore, he would move to print and refer to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Hodnett said he would make but a few remarks. He wished members to recall to their minds, that, when this proposition was made to pay the interest on the public debt, he had warned them that the people would not be able to pay. He had begged them to take into consideration the distressed and impoverished condition of the tax paying people of the State, and to postpone, for a while, the effort to pay, until they could, in some measure, recuperate. He understood, that the Treasurer had not been able to borrow the pitiful sum of $305,000, and would not be able to do so, unless he should be allowed to hypothecate the property of the State.—Now would the House, in the face of these alarming evidences of our financial weakness, go on with their insane and lavish appropriations of money extorted from an heavily oppressed and ruined people!

Mr. Downing arose to a point of order, saying the gentleman was not confining himself to the subject under consideration.

The Speaker sustained the point, saying the question was properly upon the motion to refer to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Hodnett resumed: The reason that induced him to speak now upon this matter was that propositions appropriating millions would, in a few days, come before this House, and he wished to warn gentlemen against this mad and injurious policy of adding to the now almost unbearable load of taxation, which the people are laboring under. Instead of preserving the credit and honor of the State, such measures are eminently calculated to bankrupt and sacrifice what little is left.

Mr. Vest said he was not yet out of heart about the financial resources of the State. He was sure that, if the State wanted a Railroad, she would have it. If she wanted money, it could be raised. The fact of the Treasurer not being able to get this $305,000, after pledging the incoming taxes, was attributable solely to the fact that no revenue bill had been passed, settling the basis of taxation. There was no use of any one becoming excited over this matter. He was confident that the State of North Carolina could get the $305,000, and more, too, if she wanted it.

Mr. Downing said, in explanation of the Treasurer's failure, that it was a well known fact, that, for some time past, in the commercial centres, the moneymarket had been exceedingly stringent, and it was a matter of impossibility to borrow money, without pledging some kind of collaterals, as security. This body had restricted and hampered the Treasurer in a manner that made it impossible for him to borrow the necessary amount.

Mr. Ellis said things had taken a strange turn, in the last few months. The Treasurer had informed him that he had borrowed $100,000, at 6 per cent, last Spring. Now money could not be had for 8 per cent, after pledging the incoming taxes for its payment! The only way by which money could be had was to pledge all of the property of the State! Really, the promised benefits of this new order of things were fast being realized by the people!!

Mr. Downing said things had taken a turn, but, as he had before stated, it was owing to the stringency of the money market in the commercial centres, and not any alteration in our circumstances. In proof of his position, Mr. D. cited several examples in the city of New York, &c.

Mr. Estes next took the floor, in explanation of the failure to borrow money. He also knew well the extreme difficulty to borrow money, without pledging collaterals.

Mr. Pou said he hoped that when the proposition pledging the State's property came up, instead of being in favor of it, that the whole House would unanimously oppose it.

Mr. Ingram said he was convinced that the present difficulty had been brought about by weak-kneed Republicans, who opposed the measure. He had been among the number, but he now came from his home, prepared to join heart and hand with the Republican party in this measure to preserve the credit of the State.

Mr. Estes said that when the bill should come up again, that the measure would not go to the table, &c. He was more proud of the vote he gave on the measure, than any he had ever cast in this House. It was a vote to preserve untarnished the honor and credit of the State.

The question recurred upon the motion to refer; which was put and carried.

SPECIAL ORDER, VIZ:

The bill to provide for the erection of the county of Dare.

On motion of Mr. Stilley, its consideration was postponed until to-day week.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Justice, of Rutherford: A resolution raising a Committee to inquire into the condition of the Arsenal building. Lies over.

Mr. Malone offered the following resolutions, which lie over, viz:

WHEREAS, The people of North Carolina are laboring under many disadvantages for the want of pecuniary means and the enterprise incident to and necessary to develop the manifold resources of the State; and whereas, the true condition of the state of affairs is not accurately understood by the people of the Northern States, and perhaps other nations who would wish to come among us as citizens, to engage in all the peaceful pursuits of life, and to invest capital in various enterprises of the State; Therefore,

Resolved, (The Senate concurring) that it is the opinion of this General Assembly that the people of the State of North Carolina greatly desire, and will hail with delight, the coming among us of all persons from the Northern States, or other countries, to assist them in the building up of the "waste places" made desolate by the ravages of war; that kindness, sympathy, and protection will be extended to all such as desire to become citizens, or to invest capital among us in legitimate trade and speculation.

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this General Assembly that the people of North Carolina acquiesce in good faith in all legitimate results of the war, and accept the situation of affairs as the very best that can be done, and that they are disposed to cultivate kindness, forbearance and peace, with all parts of the country.

Resolved, That we deprecate any reckless disposition that may be manifested to farther protract the troubles of the country, and to alienate the people by a misrepresentation of the true condition of the affairs of the State.

Mr. Parker, in the absence of Mr. White, presented the map of the townships of Perquimans county. Referred.

Mr. Bowman submitted a bill drawn by the Superintendent of Public Instruction in regard to a system of Education. Referred to Committee on Education and ordered to be printed.

By Mr. Ragland: A bill to stay judgments on all debts contracted prior to May, 1865, until June, 1869. Ordered to be printed and made the special order for Friday next, 12 o'clock.

By Mr. McMillan: A bill to authorize the Commissioners of Duplin county to levy a special tax to build and repair bridges, &c. Referred.

[Here a long debate as to the legal manner of disposing of the reports of the various County Commissioners sprang up, and, after a lengthy discussion, the matter was made the special order for day after to-morrow, at 12 o'clock.]

By Mr. French: A bill amending the charter of the city of Wilmington, defining the terms of office of Aldermen.

On motion of Mr. F., the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

A message was received from the Senate, informing the House of the passage of the House bill for the relief of the Sheriff of Greene county.

By Mr. Argo: A resolution raising a joint Committee of three, on the part of the House, and two, on the part of the Senate, to review the Code of Civil Procedure, as adopted by the General Assembly, at its special Session of 1868.

On motion of Mr. A., the rules were suspended, and the resolution was adopted.

By Mr. Sinclair: A resolution, repealing Chapter 103, Section 5, Revised Code, which appropriates the two east rooms of the Northern division of the Capitol to the Supreme Court.

Mr. Sinclair moved to suspend the rules and adopt.

Mr. Malone hoped the motion to suspend would not prevail, or that the resolution would be voted down. Here was one of the co ordinate branches of the government,—the Supreme Court of the State—coming to hold their court in the Chambers prescribed by law, when they find it filled with books and papers, and occupied by a man, who, though properly an officer of the government, had, as yet, no duties assigned to him, save to store those books and papers aforesaid. This removal was an outrage upon the dignity of the Court and a direct violation of the law. They were most unceremoniously ousted from their chamber, and given quarters in what has been very properly styled the "cock-loft" of this building, reached by a flight of stairs dangerous to the well-being of the neck of even a young man. The Chief Justice and all the Associates had protested against such a procedure.

Mr. French hoped the motion to suspend the rules would prevail. Spacious and adequate rooms could be assigned the Court in the Executive Mansion, &c.

Mr. Ingram said he had too much veneration for the Supreme Court and their prerogatives to vote to confirm a wrong perpetrated upon them. He hoped the Court would be continued in their proper chambers.

Mr. Pou said that the law fixed the Supreme Court in the rooms in question, and the Court could not be legally held anywhere else, until that law was repealed. He hoped this resolution would not be adopted.

Mr. Robinson said he had earnestly opposed the removal, both in the House and Committee. A resolution rescinding the former action displacing the Court had been favorably reported upon by the majority of the Committee, (on Public Grounds and Buildings,) but the House had, on motion of the gentleman from New Hanover, laid it on the table. He thought the speediest way of settling this matter was by making a motion to reconsider that vote, &c.

Mr. Argo thought that it was eminently proper that the Supreme Court should have rooms in the Capitol, and the proposition of removing it to the Executive Mansion was out of the question. He understood that the Superintendent of Public Instruction had signified his willingness to be removed to the Executive Mansion.

Mr. Bowman also opposed Mr. Sinclair's resolution, and wished to vote for a in measure rescinding the resolution that caused it.

Mr. Sinclair said he at first had strenuously opposed, and did everything that he could against, the removal of the Court, but, now that it had been done, he opposed the trouble and expense that another move would entail. The removal of the Superintendent of Public Instruction would necessitate the removal of the Auditor, and this would interfere greatly with the business of settling for taxes, which was going forward every day, &c.

The question recurred upon the motion to suspend the rules. The yeas and nays being called upon that motion, resulted in a vote of yeas 7, nays 73.

Mr. Bowman then offered a resolution (the Senate concurring) that so much of the action of the Committee on Public Buildings, as resulted in placing the Superintendent of Public Instruction and Auditor in the rooms of the Supreme Court, be repealed.

After some debate, the rules were suspended; when

Mr. Estes offered an amendment, authorizing the Committee on Public Buildings to provide rooms for the Auditor and Superintendent of Instruction.

Mr. Vest moved to postpone until to-morrow. Lost.

Mr. Stilly moved to amend, by saying, "and make a report to this body." Carried.

The resolution, as amended, was put to a vote and adopted.

Mr. Laffin gave notice that there would be a meeting of the Legal Profession, in the Senate Chamber, to-morrow, at 2 o'clock.—All the members of that Profession are invited to attend.

On motion of Mr. Argo, the House adjourned until to-morrow, 11 o'clock.

But, though they wear in their faces the innocence of doves, you will find them in their dealings as subtle as serpents. Interest is their faith, money their god, and heaven possessions the only heaven they covet."

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an analogous character of the aromatic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1854; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around Wolfe's Schnapps would have prevented the introduction and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however, only to have stimulated the rapacity of imposters. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the indorsement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by mendacious humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and have made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a barley of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In connexion, the undersigned would say that he has pledged, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Sch

FIRE COMPANY NO. 2.—There will be a meeting of this Company, for the purpose of re organization, at the Mayor's Office, on Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock.

BUCKET COMPANY.—We are requested to give notice that there will be a meeting of the Bucket Company, at the Mayor's Office, this (Thursday) evening, at 7 o'clock. There will be an election of officers, and a full attendance of members is requested.

THE TEMPLETON TROUPE.—Go and see the magnificent play of Mazeppa, by this talented Company, at Tucker Hall, to-night. The Wilmington papers speak in high terms of the merits of the performance.

We take the following notice of the Company from the Atlanta Intelligencer:

DAVIS THEATRE.—Mr. John Templeton, with his favorite company, appeared last night before a very fair audience, and performed Mazeppa after the most approved style. Among the troop we were pleased to see Alice Vane, who is greeted with applause whenever she appears on the stage here. We call especial attention to the programme for to-night, and promise any one who goes an entertaining time. Templeton knows how to please, and you may rest assured you will get the worth of your money.

THE TRUSTEES of the University held a meeting in the Capitol, yesterday afternoon. We presume they confirmed the "Faculty" of the Executive Board, including the spectacled Athenian, the Oberlin graduate, &c., &c.

COLEMAN.—A correspondent wants to know why the youth, who writes himself Attorney General, turns a deaf ear to applications for information from magistrates, and refers them to private counsel? We don't know. We reckon that it is because Coleman don't know.

BANK OF N. C.—The adjourned meeting of the Creditors of this Bank will be held in this City on the 11th. inst.

"PROFESSOR" PATRICK.—This new Professor at Chapel Hill is not our old "fiddling" friend, D. A. Patrick, we are informed, for he used to get "very good" for what he tried to do. But it is David Settle Patrick, who graduated in 1856, among those who got only "tol" and "respect" for what they tried to do.

BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION.—We hope that the Committee on Bribery and Corruption will go actively to work with their investigations, and give us a report at the earliest practicable day, consistently with a full and thorough inquest.

MEETING OF LAWYERS.—The adjourned meeting of members of the Legal Profession will be held in the Senate Chamber, this afternoon, for the purpose of discussing "the Code."

WE WERE in error in stating that Mr. Bell received the highest vote of any of the unsuccessful candidates in the Middle Ward. Mr. Cheatham received the largest number and Mr. Bell next.

MEETING IN CHATHAM.—We have inadvertently mislaid the last page of the manuscript proceedings of the public meeting in Chatham, recently held. The page in question contained the names of officers, &c. Will friend Taylor, or some one else, please send us the missing information?—Meanwhile, the proceedings are good enough to keep, but, for the information of members of the Legislature, we will state that the people of Chatham call on them to remove "Attorney General" Coleman and "Judge" Jones on account of their habits.

"PEPPER" V.—Bro. Pepper, in the dizziness of mounting the tripod, has been striking blindly about him. He hit at the Biblical Recorder, of this city, a few days since, and gets served thusly therefor:

"Some friends advised us not to notice attacks so scurrilous. But Paul fought with beasts at Ephesus, Peter cast out unclean spirits, and our Saviour rebuked devils. It seems to be our duty to follow these examples." * * * * * *

"We demand of the Standard, "By what authority doest thou these things, and who gave thee this authority?" What right has a Northern Methodist to assume the censorship of editorials in a Southern Baptist paper? What right has an army chaplain, whose salary our toiling people are taxed to pay, to neglect the souls of the soldiers and waste his time in editing a political paper, or in absurd criticisms of a religious paper?" * * * * * *

It seems that the offence of the Recorder was calling "Gov." Holden's and Prof. Brewer's and Pilgrim Ashley's and Attorney General Coleman's Church the "Loyal Church." It is also called, very appropriately, the "Church of the Strangers," but the Recorder did not call it so, nor did it allude to the "loil" and pious congregation offensively. At all events the Recorder thus makes ground-pepper of the reverend Pod:

"We disapprove of any church organized on the basis of loyalty. Loyalty, like philosophy, is a good thing in its place, but it does not furnish any proper foundation for a Christian church. "For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ."

Why does not the Standard give us the name of the thing? If it is not a church, what is it? A Missionary station? Has the Northern Methodist church established a Missionary station in our Capitol?

But we are surprised to see a Northern Methodist minister advocating the doctrine of "christian equality." He seems to be tired of Bishops and Presiding Elders, and to have gone over to the doctrines of the "Great Iron Wheel."

The Standard says: "We hope this man's brethren at the North will remember this treatment of Christian loyalty by those Southern Baptists who are begging money for various religious purposes."

If any Southern Baptists are at the North begging money among Northern Methodists, we bespeak for them that contempt which they so richly deserve. We take this occasion to inform the Standard that when objects of benevolence are presented to Northern Baptists, they seldom pause to ask the advice of Methodist Chaplains editing political papers.

Bacon advises the young not to mistake pepper for salt; we have tried to avoid that error, and to observe a high standard of dignity and courtesy even in replying to articles possessing no claim to either."

THE SUPREME COURT.—This tribunal met in the old rooms, on yesterday, the Chief Justice and all the Associate Justices being present—and Pilgrim Ashley, too! The Judges and the Pilgrim have chairs. The Judges are without their desks, however, which have been stowed away by Farris, under direction of the Governor & Co., in the cock loft. Item, the records and archives of the Court. The Pilgrim looks out of the corners of his eyes at the Court; the Court look out the corners of their eyes at the Pilgrim.

P. S.—It will be seen that the Legislature is about to settle the Capitoline imbroglio by ousting the carpet-bagger. This is right.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—After hearing, and being so much pleased with, the sermon of Bishop Gibbons, we are glad to learn there will be many more opportunities for our citizens to hear him, as there are hopes of the Catholics obtaining a resident Priest. But, for the credit of the city, do not let us, again, have a stranger come into one of our sister Churches, and find it in the dilapidated condition, which it presented to the eyes of those of us who were privileged to hear Bishop Gibbons! The plastering of the Church has been shattered by the many "loyal demonstrations" deemed necessary to the work of "Reconstruction." Therefore, we hope our loyal brethren will be as earnest in the work of Church "Reconstruction" as they are in that of "State." Let us all join in fitting up the Church. What difference does it make to us, what belief the Church has? It is "the Church of Christ," and if we cannot give Him a Temple worthy His presence, let us give Him at least a decent one.

To those who feel inclined to aid in this laudable work, we will say there is a subscription list at Mr. Pendergrast's, which list is headed by the Bishop with the sum of $100. Then follows the names of some of our most prominent citizens, members of all denominations. COM.

[From the Proceedings of the Seventieth Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the N C R. Co., July 17, 1866.]

COMMUNICATION FROM GOV. JOHN M. MOREHEAD.

To the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad:

The wise and sagacious statesmen who have taken thought as to the best improvement to develope the exhaustless resources and increase the wealth of North Carolina, have uniformly agreed upon the one great work to effect that object, to wit: One great leading trunk line of railway from the magnificent harbor of Beaufort to the Tennessee line.

The great, wise and patriotic philosopher and statesman, Dr. Joseph Caldwell, made this improvement the subject of his thought by day and his meditation by night. His visit to Europe and observations there quickened his zeal and aroused his interest in the work to enthusiasm. His thoughts and his counsels on that subject he has left on record for our benefit. He is gone.—The scheme, and his views on that scheme, survive. The great, good and wise Gaston no less zealously advocated this great work.

Charter after charter, by the influence of these great men, was granted to effect the work, but the gigantic work was thought to be too much for the limited means the State and her citizens could then command, and the charters remain monuments of their wisdom and our folly or inability to carry them out. A more successful plan, it is hoped, was finally adopted—to do this great work by sections.

The North Carolina Railroad, your section, was the first undertaken. The contracts on that road required contractors to begin on the first of January, 1852, and to finish their contracts on or before the first of January, 1856. On the 29th. of January, 1856, the road-bed was ready for the passage of trains from Charlotte to Goldsboro, a distance of 233 miles. In the meantime other charters were granted for sections of this great work, and the 7th. of June, 1858, found the road-bed of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad ready for trains from Goldsboro to Beaufort Harbor, and a few months thereafter found the trains running to within a few miles of Morganton on the Western Extension, with the whole route surveyed to the Tennessee line, and considerable progress made in grading beyond Morganton, which by the line of the survey for the road is distant from the Tennessee line by the French Broad route, some 110 miles, and by the Ducktown route some few miles more.

Here let us pause and take a survey of what has been done in seven years towards this great work.

From Beaufort Harbor to Goldsboro', the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad Company have built 96 miles. From Goldsboro' to Charlotte you (the North Carolina Railroad) have built 223 miles.

From Salisbury to within 4 miles of Morganton the Western North Carolina Railroad have built 76 miles, besides a large amount of grading ready or nearly so for the superstructure, making in all 395 miles, from which deduct 43 miles, from Salisbury to Charlotte, and we have actually built of this great line 352 miles in one continuous line.

Think of it! Seven years! In the lifetime of a State or nation, seven years is but as a moment in its existence. It would not cover the dawning of its infancy. In the great day of a nation's improvements, seven years would not be the sunrise of that day. We have done this great work in the twilight of our great day of Internal Improvement—a day which dawned so beautifully upon us, but which became enveloped in that gloom which shrouds the nation in mourning.

But let us despair not. That day which dawned so beautifully upon us will yet reach its meridian splendor. Then let us be up and doing that which we, ere this, would have done, but for circumstances we could not control.

Already Tennessee is pushing an arm of her Virginia and Tennessee Road from Morristown to the North Carolina line at Paint Rock. She will shortly connect Cleveland with her Ducktown copper mines and the North Carolina line near that place. Shall we meet our lovely daughter at the line and welcome her to the maternal bosom?—Surely, we will, and then the hopes, the dreams of the great and good Caldwell and Gaston will be realized.

The trade of Memphis will find its nearest and best Atlantic port at Beaufort Harbor. East Tennessee will find herself within less than a day's travel of the same port, while the exhaustless mines of Ducktown and our own mountains of minerals will crowd our freighted trains beyond their capacity for transportation.

Can we do it? Yes!! And we will if your powerful body will only say the word and the Legislature will permit you to do it.

You have the honor of being the pioneers in this great work, executed in sections.—Do yourselves now the honor to consolidate the whole and complete the original design. You, the most powerful and most independent of the three corporations, can, with much grace, propose to your sister corporations consolidation upon terms of justice and equity, manifesting selfishness in naught but your name. Yield not that. The new consolidated corporation should be still "the North Carolina Railroad Company." This will be a corporation worthy of you, of your State and of the great destinies that await it.

It has been proposed to permit the western section to go into hands that will complete it. Resist the proposition with all your might, strength and influence, except it be to bring it unto the consolidated corporation. Let no corporation stand between you, and the trade of the vast west, within your own State.

You may ask, will the consolidated corporation be able to complete the line?—Unquestionably it will. It will be a corporation possessed of property already costing some eight or nine million of dollars, well and cheaply invested. The consolidated debt of all these corporations will be a mere trifle compared to its ability to pay, and with its great capital and large income it will meet but little difficulty in raising the means to defray present indebtedness and to complete the line. And when completed, who can predict the vast consequences resulting from its completion?

I desire to put the prediction upon record, as I now do, that if this scheme of consolidation is successfully carried out, that in less than five years after its completion, the net income of a single year will pay every debt now owed by the three corporations; that the net income of the next two successive years will pay the whole cost of the completion of the road to the Tennessee line by the nearest route; and the next year or two years' net profit will pay the whole cost of the road from the fork to the Tennessee line by the other route; which will be the more direct and profitable line—the construction of both of which lines, in due time, I would most earnestly recommend.

I take it for granted, opposition to the consolidation of the Roads, will arise. To witness the struggle of the lines now connecting with your Road, for the little straggling freight that now passes over it, is presumptive evidence that they will resist consolidation, lest all the freight will pass directly to the ocean by your own line.—Heed them not! Consult only the great interest of your own State and of yourselves and thereby you will suit even the interests of these opposings, if they but knew it.

The drippings and leakage the wayside of this great, overtaxed bt trunk line will give them more freight than your whole Road now yields them. Besides, this higgling and underbidding as the price of freight will cease.

With this great freight luminating on your own excellent harbour commercial advantages may we hope for?

But there are those who pretend to doubt the capacity of our harbor extended commerce. Refer such sceptic the fleet of upwards of three hundred vessels and transports which so lately rode on its bosom. Our own lines of weekly monthly steamers will carry our produce, in our own vessels, from our own port across the Atlantic.

We shall then avoid those ruinous exactions made at the North in charges for freight, fire insurance, marine insurance, advertising, city taxes, wharfage, wharfdrayage, storage and labor, with the cessions on the whole, which often leave scarcely enough to pay the express cany for bringing back what they loot as "net proceeds."

With this great trunk line all operation, a weekly line of steamers could find continual employment to foreports.—And, if to its interests to do so, powerful corporation could establish lines in a few years by its own means.

Should you doubt the policy embarking in the construction of the Western Extension at this time, consolidate the two Roads already completed and reap the advantages derived therefrom.

Doubtless the Legislature will grant the desired charter, if a Committee of your body were to ask for it, in yourself, and your Eastern friends of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad would leap for joy at the prospect of so much freight crowding their road.

It will take some time to get matter judiciously arranged and the sooner the subject is agitated, the soonection will take place upon it.

Very respectfully your o'bt sert,

J. M. MOREAD.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6, M.

In the Baltimore Circuit Court, yesterday, Judge Pinkney delivered the opinion in the case of Addison vs. Addison. The Bill the case was filed for the sale of certain prop, the title to which involved the question of legality of marriage contracts between slaves.

The Court decided that a contract marriage between slaves was legal and valby consent of the master; and the moral assent the slave, although dormant during slavery, on the moment of freedom produces all the effects which result from a marriage contract between free persons.

Nothing of interest in the House Supreme Court.

The Senate is considering the Line Railroad hence to New York.

FOREIGN.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, n. 6, P. M.

General Meade reports to Genl Grant as follows:

"I transmit the latest dispatches on General Sibley, regarding the "Ogeechee Realties."—General Sibley has been instruct to forbid armed organizations, whether white or black, and to preserve the peace at all hards,—to cooperate with the civil authorities, case he finds the civil authorities acting in good faith, and that their action is necessary to preserve the peace, and not; as at Camilla, where the law was made a pretext for outrage upon the negro. At the same time, General Sibley will be instructed to disarm and disperse all assembling of negroes and require their submission to the civil authorities."

The balance of the report embraces an account of the Ogeechee affairs already published.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan 6, P. M.

HOUSE.—The Secretary of War has asked for the number of troops to be emplied in Texas and Virginia.

The political disabilities of J. Gholson, of Alabama, were removed.

The House went into Committee of Appropriations.

The Pension bill appropriating thirteen and a half million passed.

The House then adjourned.

SENATE.—Executive reports regarding Indiana, &c., were presented.

The Judiciary Committee reported a bill forbidding the holding of two offices, civil or military, at the same time.

The Committee on Agriculture reported a bill, re-organizing the Agricultural Bureau, securing appointments from each State, familiar with local wants.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Jan. 6, P. M.

The State Treasurer having written to General Stoneman, recommending the payment to members of the late Constitutional Convention of balances due them, Gen. Stoneman replies that, having consulted Secretary Schofield, who commanded the District at the time the Convention was in session, he declines to issue an order for the payment of said balances.

Revenue collections in this District, last year, were seven hundred thousand dollars—being nearly two hundred thousand more than in 1867.

The State Press, as far as heard from, stand as follows on the new movement for universal suffrage, with the hope of universal amnesty:—In favor of it 11 Democratic papers; against it 8 Democratic and two Republican papers.

FROM FLORIDA—THE LEGISLATURE.

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 6, P. M.

By resolution, a Committee of five was appointed by the Speaker of the House, to-day, to investigate the conduct of Gov. Reed.

A quorum of the Senate is present. Lt. Gov. Gleason presiding.

FROM SOUTH CAROLINA.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,942.06.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance, and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

THE rapid advancement of "THE EQUITABLE," to the very front rank of American Life Insurance Companies, the unprecedented amount of its new business for the year ending September 30th, 1868, being over the large accumulation by it of EIGHT MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, together with an annual income of FIVE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, afford the very best evidences of its popularity, success and reliability.

FIFTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS,

A brief comparison of the Society's business for the first nine years of its organization, will best illustrate its remarkable progress.

LIFE LEAVES.

The day, with its sandals dipped in dew,
Has passed through the evening's golden gates,
And a single star in the cloudless blue
For the rising moon in silence waits;
While the winds that sigh to the languid hours
A lullaby breathe o'er the folded flowers.

The lilies nod to the wand'ring [illegible]
That winds along with the stream
And either cradle [illegible]
I pass, thro' [illegible]
While h[illegible] of half-a-dozen
[illegible] the realms of [illegible]
[illegible] peer with many a [illegible] ago;
[illegible] the bowers of memory's [illegible]
[illegible] magic isle.

There are joys and sorrows
That cheer the path of [illegible], sorrows and tears,
And a longing wish for [illegible] life's April hours,
That hope ever [illegible] the coming years,
[illegible] ers [illegible] athes with the fairest flow-
There are friend[illegible]
And pure as [illegible] ships guileless—love as bright
[illegible] stars in the halls of night.

There are [illegible] ashen memories, bitter pain,
And [illegible] ried hopes, and a broken vow,
[illegible] aching heart by the reckless main,
[illegible] and the sea-breeze fanning a pallid brow;
And a wanderer on the shell-lined shore,
Listening for voices that speak no more.

There are passions strong, and ambitions wild,
And the fierce desire to stand in the van
Of the battle of life; and the heart of the child
Is crushed in the breast of the struggling man;
But short the regrets, and few the tears
That fall at the tomb of the banished years.

There is quiet and peace, and domestic love,
And joys arising from faith and truth,
And a truth unquestioning, far above
The passionate dreaming of ardent youth;
And kisses of children on lip and cheek,
And the parent's bliss, which no tongue can speak.

There are loved ones lost! There are little graves
In the distant dell, 'neath protecting trees,
Where the streamlet winds, and the violet waves,
And the grasses sway to the sighing breeze;
And we mourn for the pressure of tender lips,
And the light of eyes darkened in death's eclipse.

And thus as the glow of the daylight dies,
And the night's first look to the earth is cast,
I gaze, 'neath those beautiful summer skies,
At the pictures that hang in the hall of the past;
Oh! Sorrow and Joy chant a mingled lay,
When to memory's widowed we wander away.

A negro philosopher, discussing the relations of races, said: "You know de turkey he roost on de fence; an' de goose he roost on de ground. You pull de turkey off de fence and he get up again. You crap his wings, but somehow or nudder he gwine to get back on de fence. Now, you put de goose on de fence, an' he fall off, he don't b'long dar. De turkey am de white man. Heese down now, but is gwine up again. De nigger is de goose. He better stay whar he b'longs."

ON FAYETTEVILLE STREET,
FOR SALE.

ON THURSDAY, the 28th inst., at public sale, on the premises, I will sell, to the highest bidder, that valuable STORE BUILDING, formerly occupied and owned by Mrs. BARLING, and now occupied by A. D. ROYSTER, Esq.

Said building is of brick and two stories high. It contains two rooms below and three above stairs,—the former admirably adapted for business, and the latter suited for a family. On the lot are a two-story Kitchen and other out-houses, with a small garden, &c.

The property is, every way, most eligibly located and the stand is well-known and popular.

Terms made known on day of sale.

Stop the Thief—$75 Reward!

SOME SCOUNDREL broke open the door of my Stable, Saturday night, the 27th December, and stole a small BLOOD BAY PONY, belonging to my little son. This Pony has a long swayed back, carries a very high head, has stout, round hind quarters, is about four feet high, has a nicked tail and shaggy shrimmed mane. He has very fine action, especially when cantering. He is branded "C. J. O." I will give $25 for the return of the Pony, and $50 for the arrest and conviction of the thief.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

READ STATEMEMENT

BY PERMISSION, I publish the following receipt and statement of settlement of Policy No. 81,927, for $5,000, on the life of Mrs. M. S. Hutchinson. The insurance had not been in force six months at the time of the decease of the insured.

| | $5,142 00 | $5,142 00 |

"Received at Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 18th, 1868, of S. D. Wait, General Agent of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, five thousand one hundred and forty-two dollars, in full payment of Policy No. 81,927 and dividend, and I hereby surrender all right, title and interest in the same to said Company.

(signed) JOHN HUTCHINSON,
Of Newbern, N. C."

It will be seen by the above, although the party had been insured but six months, yet one-half the premium was cancelled by an anticipated dividend. In this staunch old Company, Policies are paid in full, deducting only the interest on notes from last payment until time of death of the assured.

This Company exercises great care in the selection of its risks, and although the Company has been represented in this State nearly two years, and has been doing an extensive business, the above is its first loss.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? so let them talk, puff and blow, but stop. LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.
